FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Last Saturday Incarnation of our Lord Parish was the site of a joyous celebration; the celebration of the Sacrament of Holy Matrimony by Sara Stofanak Glovas and Andrew Glovas. Bishop Schlert and I were present to witness and to bless them. What a joy to see a bride and a groom committing to a union that is permanent, faithful and fruitful. God's plan for human bonding is described in today's first reading and confirmed by Jesus in today's gospel; man and woman joined together for life in an exclusive, singular union that bears fruit in children. This is the ideal that is God's will for married life. Jesus also shows His special love for children and holds them up as a model of trusting confidence in the Father's love for us. What a fantastic image for Christian family life!

Unfortunately, this divine plan can be thwarted by human weakness. Divorce, abortion and abuse of children are rampant. What is our response to this crisis? Prayer, sacrifice and solid teaching of the Word of God regarding marriage and family. We must never abandon the families who break under pressure. Turn to the church and its pastors for help and compassion! Be sure of my prayers for all married couples in our parish. May you strive to live out Jesus' plan for you. Never give up!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Father David J. Kozak

Also, Thank you to Ron Koach for the Donation to HG Parish of $3,100.00 from Profit of the "Grab n Go Dinners" to be used for much needed Church Roof and bell tower repairs.

His Little crew of faithful volunteers work so diligently to put out some awesome meals each month. Lisa, Sarah, Louise, Mary Ann, Bonnie, Mary Frances, Rita..... THANK YOU!

Thanksgiving Stuffing for turkeys will be sold thanksgiving week. Look for more details soon.the Meals are delicious, "Spread the word and support this endeavor. Every Little bit counts!"
