FROM THE DESK OF Fr. Dave

My dear parishioners,

Jesus has a special love for the poor, the abandoned and the suffering. He wants His healing presence to aid those of us who are in need. Isn't that everyone? Our wounds and problems can only be healed through Jesus' caring love. We in the Body of Christ, the Church are called to be instruments of His peace.

This Lent we are invited to participate in meetings involving prayer and sharing that have as their goal Healing the Body of Christ.

Please consider participating on a Friday during Lent. Afternoon sessions will be available at Holy Ghost and evening ones at Incarnation.

Jesus calls those who suffer His special friends. Let us use this Lenten period to bring His healing touch to them.

May Jesus bless you and your families

Coffee & Donuts will be provided after both Masses.

Healing Our Church Discussion Groups

Coming for 6 weeks during Lent.

Catholics throughout the Diocese of Allentown are invited to attend small-group discussions, moderated by fellow parishioners, and designed to encourage reflection and conversation about the clergy abuse crisis. Healing Our Church is a program from RENEW International, a Catholic nonprofit organization. Bishop Alfred Schlert has called the parish-based small-group discussions "an opportunity for all of us to prayerfully reflect on scripture, on the abuse crisis, and on our path forward as a Roman Catholic Family of Faith." Discussions will take place during the six weeks of Lent. SIGN UP NOW! CALL EITHER RECTORY!
