FROM THE DESK OF Fr. Dave

My dear friends and parishioners!

Today's Holy Gospel recounts how Jesus allowed certain followers to behold the fullness of His divinity on the Holy Mountain. He permitted them to behold His glory in order to prepare them for the grueling road to Calvary. This prompts the question; "Do I know the real Jesus or am I focused on a false Jesus whom I imagine for myself?" We must let Jesus reveal Himself to us in His authentic presence. Above all He is TRANSFIGURED in the sacramental presence of the altar. Jesus speaks to us in the Word of God, proclaimed during divine worship or read privately and as an aid for meditation and reflection. When the people of God gather for worship or community activities together, THE MOST DIFFICULT WAY to see Him revealed is hidden in our needy brothers and Sisters.

May our Crucified Savior permit us to make progress in seeking His transfigured Face,

Your friend and pastor,

Fr. David J. Kozak
