Year of Real
PRESENCE
CENTERED IN THE HOLY EUCHARIST

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
On "Good Shepherd Sunday" Jesus challenges the pastors of the Church to care for ALL the sheep. Each individual has a need for kind and compassionate leadership imitating Jesus. His mention of sheep "not of this flock" underscores the need for outreach to the unchurched. Our brothers and sisters are in danger of being prevented from knowing Jesus. We need to work together to evangelize those who do not approach the merciful Jesus in their trials and problems. Often, they do not thank Him for the many blessings received. Any blessings are mistakenly thought to be achieved by human effort and Jesus remains neglected and not thanked. This is the dire situation in our world today. A good shepherd needs to work hard to bring these stray sheep back to active participation in the faith life of the Church. Working together we can bring them back to the Eucharistic source of life-Holy Mass. Share any ideas you may have to reconcile them.

May Jesus bless us and our efforts to bring others to Him.

Your friend and pastor,
Father David Kozak
