FROM THE DESK OF Fr. Dave

My dear friends and parishioners!

Often our world seems to be wandering about without guidance or direction. The hand that guides the course of our human existence is so prone to errors and failure. We cry out for someone or something to put us on the right path. The encouraging words of Jesus in today's holy gospel save us from despair. We have a good shepherd that guides us and protects us from danger in our personal life, and community life. The father is given charge to him and no one can ever take us from his protecting hand. That is so reassuring! When we drift along and fear that we are lost, we have a faithful hand to put us on the right path. How does Jesus, the Good Shepherd guide His flock? He has given us "written instructions or a road map" in Sacred Scripture. Also, we receive expert guidance from those who have traveled the road before us in Sacred Apostolic tradition. Finally, He gave us individuals who exercise an important ministry in the Church. Their names are Francis, Alfred and David; ie. the pastors whom Jesus gave to direct His flock. The pastors depend on your prayers to continue to be stable guides in this chaotic world. Please pray for these individuals who have that responsibility! May we reflect the image of the Good Shepherd who gives His life for the flock. May Jesus bless you!

Your friend and pastor,

Fr. David J. Kozak

Thank you, Mom, for saying "yes" to the children God entrusted to your care.
