FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

*My dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
The seemingly harsh words in today's second reading about the rich should not make us judgmental or puffed up with a feeling of superiority. The Lord God is not really concerned about how much money we have in our bank accounts. He cares about how we use that money. I am sure that there are many wealthy people, who are close to Jesus because they use their wealth to help others. God blesses some of our brothers and sisters with material things. The call to refrain from unjust accumulation of money just to benefit ourselves is the sin of pride. In the letter of Saint James, this fault is condemned, within the community to which Saint James wrote this letter, extremes of poverty and wealth were dividing the church community. The gap between the haves and the have nots was a problem. People were forgetting that we are all brothers and sisters in Christ Jesus regardless of wealth, position and power. These issues are still alive today in our modern society. Our church strives to do better, treating everyone alike, as a child of God. So, when we pass a needy or troubled person on the streets of the Southside; let us attempt to see them with the eyes of Jesus Christ. Strive to see their dignity and worth as children of God.
May Jesus bless you with the greatest wealth, charity and love in our parish, in our families, nation and the world.*

Your friend and pastor,

Father David J. Kozak
